Hometown Christmas Celebration on the Fayette County Courthouse Square this Weekend

For Immediate Release

December 2002

Contact: Scott Byler (979) 968-8701

The La Grange Main Street Hometown Christmas Celebration on the Courthouse Square in Downtown La Grange is planned for this Saturday, December 7th. There are many activities planned for this spectacular event centering around the Courthouse Square in an effort to celebrate the Christmas Season. The Hometown Christmas Festivities will begin on Saturday, December 7th. Santa will make a visit to the East Side of the Courthouse Square from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The photographers will be available for pictures with Santa during the morning session, so get those Christmas Wish Lists together for Santa!

According to Robbie Gronewald, Chair of the La Grange Main Street Promotions Committee, our 5th Annual Christmas Lighted Parade and the lighting of our magnificent Fayette County Courthouse Christmas Tree will take place in Downtown La Grange on Saturday evening, December 7th at 6:30 p.m. and promises to be even more fabulous than last year. The parade will start at the intersection of Pearl and Washington Streets proceeding South down Washington to the Square; turn West and travel around the South side of the Courthouse to Main Street; then proceed North on Main Street to conclude at the intersection of Main and Pearl Streets. Santa will be leading the parade with the assistance of the La Grange Volunteer Fire Department. Entries are currently being accepted for the lighted parade and entry forms can be requested from the La Grange Main Street Office at 155 E. Colorado Street or by contacting (979) 968-8701.

Main Street La Grange is once again sponsoring a Christmas Window Decorating Contest for all businesses wishing to participate. Please call the La Grange Main Street Office at (979) 968-8701 to enter your window. So lets all celebrate the Christmas Season and decorate your windows with the spirit of Christmas!

Main Street along with the downtown businesses wish to encourage all citizens to support our local businesses and shop locally this Christmas Season. There will be many special Christmas items and in store events in the businesses around the Square during the holiday season with endless possibilities for Christmas Gift ideas. The local Cub Scout Troops will once again hold their annual "Lad & Dad" Bake Sale on the East side of the Courthouse, Saturday December 7th. The "Lad & Dad" Bake Sale Judging is planned for Saturday morning with the sale to start at approximately 10:00 a.m. The Cub Scouts plan to have available cookies and hot chocolate before, during, and immediately following the Lighted Parade. Main Street would encourage everyone to come down to the Square for the wonderful events and some great Christmas shopping and gift giving ideas.

Merry Christmas!
